The windows have been gaily decor ple. The windows have been gaily decorated in recognition of this festive season, and thousands of passershy pause there to admire and to comment on the taste and skill exhibited. If you want shoes, or if you need shoes, Stoll's is a good p'act to visit. There is something radically wrong with your feet if you cannot find a comfortable fit there. It is quite certain that if one is so unfortunate as to have an unfitable foot in ready-made shoes, Stoll will make you a pair in which you an unfitable foot in ready-made shoes, Stoll will make you a pair in which you can find comfort. This house shows shoes in felt, kid, calf and patent leather, with all the latest heels and toes and uppers. The prices have been pared down to conform with the prices of the period, and streams of buyers are taking advantage of the good things offered. Among the very pretty articles on exhibition are little shoes for little bables. Mothers' eyes fall on these noveliles and many sales are on these novelties and many sales are

The Family Shoe Store.

The Family Shoe Store, Nos. 310-312 Seventh Street northwest, is providing footwear for a multitude of patrons, who apparently appreciate the good values offered. An extra force of salesmen has been employed to accommodate the increased attendance at this store. The proprietors claim the ability to fit feet of any size or any shape. Beginning on Monday each child will be presented with a box of French candy. One of the features of this store is its great seating capacity.

Freeborn G. Smith. The Bradbury plano man, Mr. Free-born G. Smith, at 125 Pennsylvania Avenue, is now holding his twentieth annual Christmas sale, with reduced prices as an inducement to those who wish to choose musical instruments for their prisents. There are in his store beside the standard Bradbury make of planos all other kinds of musical instruments nearly. Mr. Smith makes it possible for anyone to give a piano for a present by arranging the easiest terms for payment,

The Six Little Tailors, No. 941 Pennsylvania Avenue, are offering special inducements this week in evening dress suits. This is done to enable those who will be invited to Christmas entertainments to be dressed for the occasion. Although exceedingly cheap, these suits are of the best quality and the highest class work-manship and design. All clothing furnished by this firm is made to order in nished by this firm is made to order in the most approved style, a fit being guaranteed in every case. Although making a specialty of dress suits, great inducements are being offered in all other cuts of clothing. Attractive designs in light and dark cheviots are a feature of the Christmas display. The Six Little Tailors have always made a specialty of overcoats and a complete line of goods and styles is to be found at their estab-lishment.

Standard Tailors.

The Standard Tailors, at the corner of F and Eleventh Streets, have an entire four-story building devoted excusively to tailoring. They make every garment they sell on the premises and employ twenty-five tailors constantly. It is one of the largest tailoring establishments in the South. They are popular price tailors, too, although they exhibit very pretty lines of goods from which to choose overcoats or suits.

James Tharp.

James Tharp, the man who has sold his pure liquors for so many years at $12 F$ Street, has a beautiful eight-year-old whisky, costly but perfection, which will make many men happy this Christmas. The "Berkley" is a fine whisky, too, but only four years old, and at a smaller price. The good thing about Mr. Tharp's place is that he never sells impure or place is that he never sells impure or adulterated goods.

Tolman's Steam Laundry.

Tolman's Steam Laundry, at the corner of Sixth and C Streets northwest, is engaged day and night in producing that condition which it is said is next to god-liness. At this place they claim to wash your collars and cuffs without tearing them asunder, pulling out the button holes and doing that damage of which men com-plain. They will take any old thing down there and clean it up till it looks as pure and white as when it was born by the loom. Monster modern machinery is employed and expert operatives are at work there. At this laundry they put on what they call the "anti-swear" soft-finish button holes, that save many souls, tempers and finger palls. Well laundered liner clothes. But this laundry does not handle alone linen clothing. Lace curtains, in which the housekeeper feels such just pride, are run through the mills and are warranted to come out whole.

White & Redding.
White & Redding, the successors of Mr. Clark, at $11 Market Space, are closing out their business, and the holiday shop-pers are taking advantage of the oppor-tunity in immense crowds. The force of pers are taking anyamage. The force of clerks has not been able nearly to attend to the wishes of the intending purchasers, and many people have been turned away.

WANTED—Second-hand gent's bicycle; must be in good order and complete; can't pay over $10; state what make. BICYCLE, this office, del6-3t,em to the wishes of the intending purchasers, and many people have been turned away. This shop has always had a reputation for the care with which its stock was se-

C. B. Woodbury.
C. B. Woodbury, the successor to Jarvis, the caterer and confectiones, at 426 Ninth Street, is making great preparations to serve Christmas dinners to every part of the city and in the most modest or most luxurious style to suit the little cottage or the great mansion in the north-west. This will be his principal Christ-mas offering, but his candles and fruit

Certainly one of the best places to visit in the Christmas rounds if one wishes to give anything in footwear for a present is the United States Shoe Store, at 310 F Street, for the reason that the company is closing its Washington busi-ness and is offering all of its stock here at much reduced prices. The company has been in business in this city only a has been in business in this city only a few months and its goods are all new and attractive. The closing out sale has not been in progress long as yet, and the lines and sixes are very nearly com-plete. The store is a pretty one, taste-fully but quietly furnished, and in the short time that it has been in business here it has made a great many friends.

A case of Heurich's Maerzen beer is as essential as a turkey for your Christmas dinner. Send in your orders early to be assured of prompt delivery. 'Phone 634, Arlington Bottling Co.
